OUR STORY

She Is More Than began in the heart of A.C. Black. As a survivor of sexual abuse, A.C. knows how sexual assault can devastate a life. However, these very experiences ultimately became the driving force behind the launch of what is now a global anti-trafficking organization.

In 2011, A.C. travelled to Uganda with another organization devoted to helping women and babies with AIDS. While there, she encountered girls as young as eight being bought and sold in brothels. This could not stand, and so She Is More Than was birthed shortly after in 2013.

We are now one of only three organizations in the whole of Uganda certified by the government to provide restorative after care for teenage girls who have been victims of human trafficking and sexual abuse. She Is More Than is also passionate about our hometown communities in Central Florida and we are active right here locally in a variety of ways.

OUR WORK

PREVENT. RESTORE. PARTNER.

PREVENT

Knowledge is power. We work to stop the demand and prevent the vulnerable from ever being involved in trafficking by creating awareness surrounding human trafficking and sexual abuse in schools & local communities both here in Central Florida and in Uganda. We want you to know:

- Who traffickers target
- How traffickers work to groom, lure, and trap victims
- The signs of someone being trafficked
- How people can protect themselves and their loved ones
- How you can join the fight to end human trafficking right where you are

RESTORE

We operate a live-in restoration facility in Uganda, Africa where over 100 survivors have come through our doors to begin healing emotionally, physically, mentally and spiritually.

Florida ranks 3rd
in the nation
for human trafficking cases

Every person processes trauma differently, so we created a program that does its best to break the cycle of abuse and equip each individual survivor with the tools necessary to thrive. While our survivors stay with us for 3-6 months they receive:

- Medical care
- Trauma-informed therapy
- Academic tutoring and vocational training

The need for our kind of care in Uganda is great, so we are growing to meet it! We are currently in the process of building our forever home in Uganda where we will take in double the the amount of survivors we are able to house now. No more rent, no more small spaces, just 2.5 acres of secluded hillside property where little girls will be FREE to be little girls again.

In Central Florida, as members of the Seminole County Sheriff's Department task force, we help identify trafficking trends and collaborate with other local organizations to serve our communities accordingly. Our current focus is on prostitute outreach and public school awareness initiatives.

PARTNER

This is where our freedom fighters come in! It takes an army to take on the giant of human trafficking and we know we can't fight this battle alone.

If you're like us and want to see human trafficking come to an end in our lifetime, there are several ways you can get involved through She Is More Than.

Sponsorship

Our sponsorship program is designed to connect survivors and social justice advocates to achieve one common goal: FREEDOM for the formerly enslaved. Sponsorship carries girls ages 11-18 through the restoration program and into the after care phase, consisting of either education or vocational training.

For $75/mo you can give one survivor housing, trauma-informed therapy, medical care, a boarding school/ vocational education, school supplies, uniforms, and much more. Connect with and get to know someone oceans away!

Outreach

Our Freedom Fighters are the legs we stand on! This team helps to organize and run events, promote awareness in local communities, maintain donor relations, participate in outreaches, and are our biggest advocates in spreading the word about the injustices of human trafficking. Contact us to get involved today!

Give

She Is More Than is completely donor funded. We rely on supporters like you who are passionate about seeing modern-day slavery come to an end. Both your one-time and monthly support helps us reach those in need across the globe and right in our own backyard.
